Depending on the purpose of travel or the individual situation, applicants may be requested to submit additional supporting documents and to have a interview by the Embassy; we need to refer to MOFA, Japan. In these occasions, the visa approval procedure may not be completed by the applicant's departure date. So, please kindly make sure that the applicant submits the visa application well ahead of time. (If you have not heard from the Embassy more than 10 days after your application, you can contact the Embassy with the 8-digit reference number and the applicant's name.
